

כתב העת הישראלי לרפואה דחופה

From the Editor

Feb 1, 2005

Dear Friends,

IJEM will soon be taking on a new look.

First, we have posted our website at www.isrem.org
This will be your portal to everything going on in Israeli emergency medicine. Senior Editor Steven Friedman spearheaded this effort.

Second, a new and much enhanced printed edition will soon be the reward for your subscriptions. Our readership has been loyal, our editors hard working, and we are proud of this next step in our development.

Your comments are always welcome. Truly the time has come to strive ever upward and make the future our own.

Sincerely,

Yosef Leibman, MD

Editor-in-Chief
